- All entries must be "family friendly" and be made entirely of recycled items, with the exception of glue, tape, nails, paint, etc.
- Tabletop pieces must measure no larger than 2'6" deep by 3' wide by 3' tall. Any pieces larger than 3' tall will be placed on the grass.
- One entry permitted per person.
- For planning purposes the following must be submitted to the Parks Recreation and Maintenance Department by August 6.
  1) A completed entry form with a photo of the completed piece
  2) An information card (approximately 3" x 5") listing the entry title, a list of recycled materials used, and other comments.
- Pieces will be accepted at the Parks & Recreation Department on Friday, August 9 before 5:00 pm or delivered to the Municipal Grounds by 9:30 am on Saturday to be exhibited and voted on at the Shelby Township Art Fair on August 10 & 11.
- Winners will be chosen by ballot completed by fairgoers and awarded on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 pm.
- All entries must be picked up Sunday from 4:00 to 5:00 pm, or before August 16 at the Parks & Recreation Department. Any entries not picked up by August 16 will be discarded.
- QUESTIONS? Call the Parks & Recreation Department at 586-731-0300 or a Recycling Committee member.
